New Listings

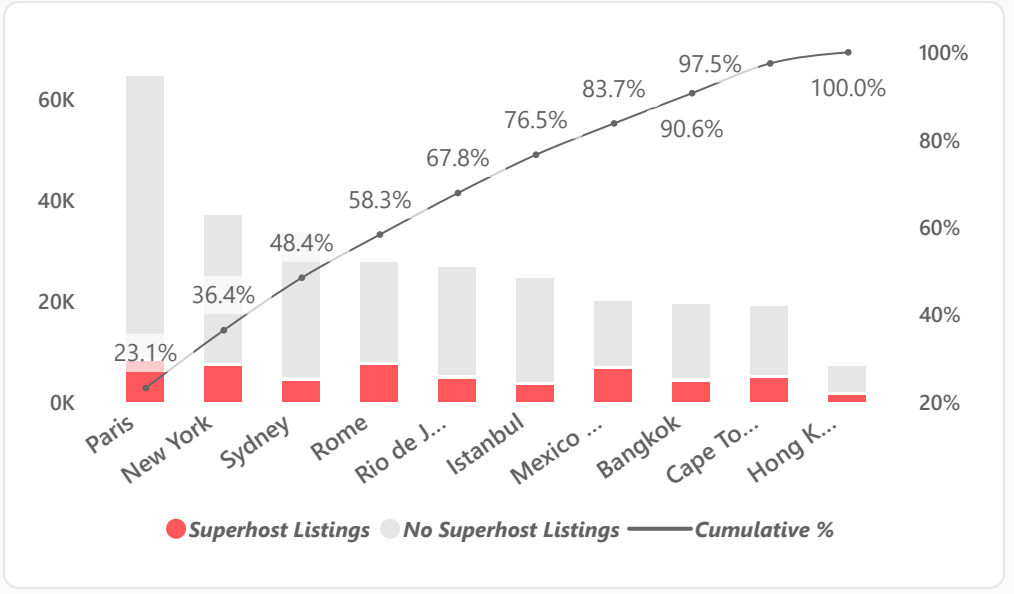

In 2015, Airbnb reached the highest number of new listings. In 2016 and 2017, growth slowed due to tighter local regulations. Despite this, Airbnb became profitable in the second half of 2016, and 2017 marked its first full year of generating income. From 2018, new listing growth stopped in 2019 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
